The purpose of the art contest is to connect students to the history of sugar on Maui, provide an opportunity for them to present their art to the community, and ignite a lifelong passion for creativity and learning.

The Sugar Museum wishes to thank Alexander & Baldwin, Inc., judges Annamarie Sheehan and Christine Waara, and the students and teachers who participated in the art contest. We are grateful!

The Alexander & Baldwin Sugar Museum is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and presenting the history and heritage of the sugar industry and the multiethnic heritage it engendered.
