

July 23, 2021

The Alexander & Baldwin Sugar Museum has unveiled two new exhibits: The Faces of HC&S, which is a photo exhibit of several employee head shots taken during the 1950s, 60s, and 70s. The exhibit is mounted on three walls in the museum foyer. The second exhibit is the Japanese Immigration Experience in Hawaii, with objects, large scale photo murals and text mounted on the walls. Reservations are required. Visit www.sugarmuseum.com. Call 808-871-8058 for current schedule.

Exhibit equipment and supplies funded by a generous grant from the Atherton Family Foundation.

Photo below: Museum Director Jill Pridemore and volunteer Amy Halas install “the Faces of HC&S” photo exhibit.

Photo above: Museum Director Jill Pridemore installs the Kabuki portion of the “Japanese Immigration Experience in Hawaii” exhibit